

Simon

Simon is a qualified General Nurse (RGN), and holds a Diploma in Children's Nursing, a Diploma in Adolescent Nursing as well as a Diploma in Research Method. He is also a qualified Mountain Leader (MLTB – UK), a Single Pitch Climbing Instructor (MLTB – UK), a Site Specific Climbing Wall Instructor (MIA), Professional Rope Access Technician (Professional Association of Climbing Instructors), a Professional Arborist (Professional Association of Climbing Instructors), a Rope Access Technician Level 1 Assessor (Australian Rope Access Association), holds a Remote Wilderness Medical Care – Advanced first aid cert, a First Aid Instructor (ITC First Aid Ltd, UK), a Forest Safety and Search & Rescue Instructor, a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society, among others.

He started his career as an Industrial Engraver before becoming a Freelance Outdoor Pursuits Instructor. For ten years he was a Children's Nurse and Senior Staff Nurse in the UK teaching hospitals including Queens Medical Centre, Nottingham, Great Ormond Street and The Middlesex, London. He then became the Expedition Manager for Trekforce Expeditions in Belize, before becoming the Operations Manager for Trekforce Expeditions for Central America and South East Asia. He was also a consultant to World Challenge Expeditions UK for South American travel.

While in Sabah, his contract with Trekforce Expeditions expired, he then started Fieldskills.

He is now based at the northern most tip of Scotland, where he now lives with Christine and their three lovely children, and flies to Borneo as and when required.

Email : amossimon@me.com