

Jerry

Jerry has been in the tourism industry close to twenty years. He has always been a Nature Guide since he started, specialising in Bird Watching trips, Photography, Mountain Climbing, Trekking and Wildlife Tours. Over the years he has also led many school group expeditions.

Jerry speaks Malay, English and Japanese. He has a really calm and collected personality, which is a good thing to have especially when dealing with groups comprising of different cultures and background.

