

Christian

Christian graduated college in Leisure Management in 2008. He is also a certified Australian Rope Access Association (ARAA) technician level 1, beside being a certified Emergency First Responder, a PC maintenance technician and a Graphic Design Adobe Illustrator level 1-2. Christian is an outdoor man by nature.

He did some industrial training as a bartender and chef at a renown 4-star hotel before moving on to running a B&B. From there he did some Escort Guiding and customer service with an adventure tour company. In 2009 he moved to another Tour Operator and took up the position of a Tour Planner and Island Sales Coordinator. He has since been involved in the tourism industry and joined Fieldskills in early 2013.

Christian is a natural leader and guide, and it's not surprising that guests adore him when he leads teams on biking tours. Coupled with the fact that he is a brilliant cook, he is a complete package. If you look at his complete CV you will find that he's more at home outdoor than in. He currently overseas the operation of Bike Borneo www.bikeborneo.com and also assists in our other adventure tours, school expeditions and training courses.
